

Excavation of Bath House (3)

All the evidence from the 2016 excavation demonstrates that the Bath House was constructed to very high standards...

... as shown by stone faced, concrete filled walls a metre wide...

...and vaulted ceilings – using hollow wedge-shaped tiles to construct the vault.

Excavation of the original masonry house (4) in 2010 showed that only the footings remained