

Excavation of Masonry Building (2)

A house with high quality masonry was excavated in 2014, 2015, and 2016 – characterised by:

Carefully constructed masonry over a metre thick to support the eastern gable end

Stone tiles from Purbeck, Dorset - probably transported by sea

Carefully constructed masonry almost a metre thick to support the western gable end

